

To The Board of Directors,
Western States Association of Tax Representatives:

Believing that membership in the Western States Association of Tax Representatives (“Association”) will be advantageous both to the Association and to my employer, I hereby make application for membership therein.

Article III, of the By-laws of the Association provides:

1. Membership shall be open to persons who are responsible for some phase of ad valorem tax administration in the capacity of employee or consultant of an investor-owned corporation or other entity, which owns property that is valued or assessed for tax purposes by the State Tax Commission or other central assessment agency (or in a state with no central assessing agency, property which in one of the other states would be centrally assessed) in any or all of the following states:

Alaska Arizona California Colorado Hawaii Idaho Montana New Mexico Nevada Oregon Texas
Utah Washington Wyoming

2. Each applicant for membership shall state in writing the name and industry function of the corporation or other entity represented, and the capacity in which he or she represents the corporation or other entity.

In compliance with said By-law provision, I certify that I am employed in the capacity of
